Re: DOCEO OFFICE SOLUTIONS

To Whom It May Concern:

I am the Managing Partner of Blakey, Yost, Bupp & Rausch, LLP, and have served in that capacity for over ten years. I write this letter as my unreserved recommendation of Doceo Office Solutions as the potential provider for all of your office technology needs.

Blakey, Yost, Bupp & Rausch, LLP, has been a Doceo client for over seven years, having switched to them after a long and successful relationship with one of York's oldest and most prominent office technology vendors. But, after one meeting with Michael Black and John Lewis, we were sold.

In the years that have passed since that initial meeting, Doceo has done nothing more than surpassed every expectation. More recently, though, we were delighted when Michael approached us with an unsolicited proposal to upgrade our existing Doceo office equipment AND save money. That initiative, combined with his keen understanding of our particular set of needs, demonstrated his continued commitment to our firm's success. Needless to say, we see Doceo as an integral part of our team.

It is my great pleasure to recommend Doceo Office Solutions for all of your office technology needs, and to do so in the strongest terms and without reservation. I have every confidence that their team will endeavor to reach the same high level of satisfaction for your company that they continually achieve for our firm.

Very truly yours,

Bradley J. Leber
